Mr. Anderson

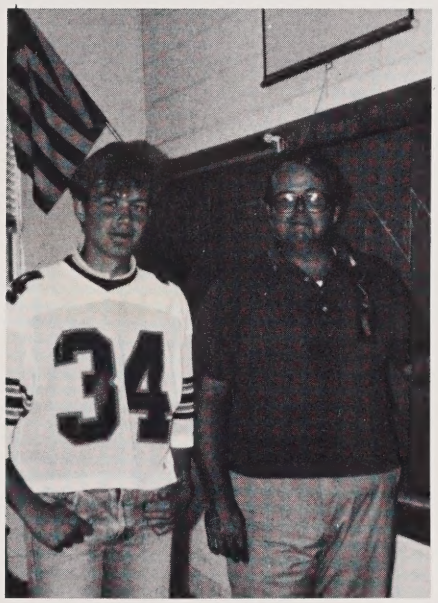
As a teacher, you have been someone who cares about us and about what we learn. You have taken extra time to explain what we did not understand, and you have struggled with us until we did. You made learning fun with your humor and you built up our confidence by allowing us to be ourselves. You taught us about life — but better yet, you taught us to believe in ourselves as you did.

To show our appreciation for the cherished memories, we are dedicating the 1984 edition of the Whispering Pines to you, Mr. Richard Anderson.



As a friend, you have been someone to laugh with and learn from. You have opened our eyes to another part of the world that most of us may never see. You have shared a segment of your life with us; and as far away as Sweden may be, we will always have you as a friend. Thanks for the memories, Jonas Sandstedt.

Poem to the Seniors

Another year goes passing by Another Prom is here
To some this brings a joyous smile
To others, brings a tear
For four years you have tread a path
From dawn to setting sun
But now the path gets steeper
And the climb is just begun.
We're very glad to know you
We'll miss you when you've gone
And to the Class of '83
We dedicate our Prom.

OFFICERS

The C.E.C.N.C. (Career Exploration Clubs of North Carolina) is a state chartered organization for students in grades 7-9 especially those involved in the prevocational education program.

The purposes of this organization are as follows:

To encourage improvement in scholarship.
To recognize the importance of various curricula and their relevance to careers.
To develop competent leadership.
To strengthen the confidence of students in themselves and their work.
To create more interest in the intelligent choice of occupations.
To develop character, train for useful citizenship, and foster patriotism.
To encourage and practice thrift through experience in budgeting and managing finances.
To provide and encourage the development of organized recreational activities.
To assist the prevocational educational program.
To supplement classroom instruction.
To provide real hands-on experiences rather than just simulations.
To broaden students' views of the reality of life and work.
To enable students to enhance self-esteem through performance, responsible decision-making, and a sense of belonging.
To help students become more independent through learning experiences with new and different people from varied backgrounds.

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Front Row; Kenny Jackson, Chris Barnwell, Lawrence Jones, Tim Corn, David Wilkie, Shannon Frye.
Middle Row; Chris Burleson, Harold Messer, Robert Moore, Bradley Alstin, Scott Hill, Robert Bradley, Randy Jackson, Sammy Aummey.

The Boy Scouts range in age from 11 to 18. They form troops of 20 to 100 members and smaller groups called patrols. Boy Scouts go on camping trips and learn such skills as hiking, swimming, outdoor cooking, and first aid. They also develop individual hobbies and physical fitness. They wear tan shirts and olive green slacks. They may also wear the national scout neckerchief. The troop owns four boats and two vehicles. The troop takes trips to New Mexico and Florida to high adventure bases each year.

EDITORIAL

The 1983-84 BEELINE newspaper staff produces one issue of the BEELINE each month including special editions at Christmas and other holidays. Sandy Justice served as Editor and was assisted by Gigi Petro, associate editor; Mark Belford, news editor; Janet Joyce feature editor; Kevin Connor, sports editor and Miss Nancy Edwards, sponsor.

Dedicated writers and photographers improved the quality and content of the BEELINE over previous years. Changing printers also aided in producing a clearer, more legible newspaper. Articles regularly found in the BEELINE included Club News, Letters to the Editor, Book and Music Reviews, Can You Imagine?, Sports Editorials, Puzzles and Comics.

Vast Emptiness

When all your friends desert,
and all you hear is scorn;
Everything inverts,
and an emptiness is born.

Emptiness is not rare,
It's very common to man;
no one seems to care,
no one lends a hand.

The feeling's known as lonely,
alone in thought and deed;
Plain and feeling homely,
never to succeed.

Doris Kitchen

YOU

I knew the first time I saw you,
that I'd never be the same.
I had seen a real gentleman who could turn a spark into a flame.

You called me your "Baby",
and in you I felt secure.
When someone would ask me "Why?"
I would tell them, "I'm not sure."

Now I know the reason,
for with you I fell in love,
and time in its own season,
brought me you from above!!!!

Cindy Guice

Watch your thoughts, they become words;
Watch your words, they become actions;
Watch your actions, they become habits;
Watch your habits, they become character;
Watch your character for it becomes destiny.

Doris Kitchen

Thoughts . . .

Is it I am destine forever to be left as a second best?
When I long to be first for once as the rest?
I would truly like to be first for some one else who would be true . . . And for me to love them like you never knew.
How can it always be
I fall for someone and never come in first place?
And how can I stop being a joker and come out
the top ace?
See I would hope for this to happen one time only.
Because you see thats all it takes to love and be loved forever truly and know you never again will be hopeless and lonely.

To Edneyville School From A Senior

Dreams of yesteryear seem so vivid.
I remember walking together and talking together.
We had all sort of fun
Those were the good old yesteryears
And now I've gone . . .
I'm standing here trying to make it on my own . . .
Maybe we can make it without each other . .
. . . Just maybe I can . . .
